Hechts' "clearing sale."

White goods and wash goods.

Showing the enormous reductions made by reason of the necessity of reducing stocks to their minimum. Such prices seem almost incredible, considering that the best part of the season is yet ahead. Prices are not half in many instances.

Short lengths white India linen, but splendid lengths for waists, etc., the quality which sells for 19c., to go for 4½c.

40-inch plain white organdie, the handsome sheer quality which sells at 29c. yard, to go for 15½c.

69-inch plain white sheer organdies, which sell for 39c. yard, will be sacrificed at 25c. yard.

Extra heavy corded piques, in plain pink and light blue and pink and white stripe and blue and white stripe, 9½c. instead of 25c.

Extra heavy welt white pique, in short lengths and slightly soiled, to go for 8½c. yard; sold for 20c. to 31c. yard.

Figured organdies, dimities and plain Swisses, in as many as 100 styles, which sold for 12½c., for 4½c.

Plain pink and light blue crinkoline, the season's new wash fabric, which has been 12½c. yard, for 6½c. yard.

Balance of the sample wrappers all go in 1 lot at 49c.

They are enormous values—every one of them. At 67c. they were very, very cheap, and at 49c. they are wonders, because none of them are worth less than $1.25 and some are worth much more.

There are no two patterns alike in the lot—there are no two of them trimmed alike. Some are of percale—a fine quality of percale—some are of lawn—some are of batiste. Being samples they are necessarily absolutely perfect in make and finish, and the patterns are the choicest—the prettiest. We have been showing the identical wrappers in our regular stock at $1.25, and for this reason, when we offer them at 49c. we know we are offering you an immense bargain.

Trimmed tastefully—elaborately—with wide ruffles and braid; have the fullest skirts—separate waist linings and every perfectness which makes a wrapper desirable.

Skip other waist sales!

—or do not buy until you have been here and looked at our shirt waists. If what the other stores advertise in the newspapers are the biggest values they offer, then you are certain of finding the greatest values here. No other store has cut their shirt waists as we have—that is certain.

98c. to $1.69 waists are 49c.

$1.98 white India linen waists are 79c.

All our finest colored waists are 98c.

Ladies' sailors, 49c.; were $2.

Hundreds of those ladies' Milan and split straw and rough and jumbo straw sailors, with plain and polka dot crepe de chine bands—the most stylish thing of the season—which sold up to $2, at 49c. for your choice. The great demand for these has been tremendous.

Hecht and Company, 513-515 Seventh Street.

DON'T BORROW A TRAVELING BAG—BUY ONE.

BUY the newest thing out—INDUSTRIAL FIBER TELESCOPE CASES—they hold almost everything. You'll be proud to carry one for your next appearance. A good one for $1.10.

IF you're fastidious—want a "new" bag or case, of the fashionable shape—it's here.

Great Reduction in Hair Goods.

Switches.....$2.00—formerly $5.00. Switches.....$1.00—formerly $2.50. Gray Switches.....$1.00—formerly $2.50.

Alleged Speakeasy. Mrs. Elizabeth Kohler, who keeps what is known as the "Howardston Market," on Wilson street, was charged in the Police Court today with keeping a "speakeasy." Counsel demanded a jury trial, and bond for Mrs. Kohler's appearance was given. Sergeant Elliott and Police Officer Howard, Foley, Geier and Rott raided the defendant's place about 10 o'clock yesterday morning. The officers found a number of empty beer bottles on the premises, but no liquor.

His Arm Broken. Frederick Pfeiffer, thirty-one years old, an inmate of Soldiers' Home, had his arm broken while riding on a Brightwood car early yesterday morning. He was a passenger on the car, and when near Omaha street he extended his arm from the car window. His arm came in contact with a trolley pole while the car was in motion. McClain says he sustained the severe injury. Dr. Stone of Brightwood removed surgical aid and the patient was removed to the Soldiers' Home Hospital.
